

Tamicka Monson, MA, MS, LCPC, CCTP

Therapist • Speaker • Author

Kansas City Community Wellness Speaker, Summer 2026

About Tamicka

Tamicka Monson is a Licensed Clinical Professional Counselor (LCPC) with over 15 years of experience working with children, families, and communities impacted by trauma, incarceration, and systemic stress. She is the author of Where Daddy Lives and a regionally recognized speaker on healing, storytelling, and Black family mental health.

During Summer 2026, as Kansas City welcomes visitors from across the country and globe, Tamicka offers speaking and community programming focused on mental health, resilience, and cultural healing.

Signature Summer 2026 Talks

- Healing in a City in Motion
- Supporting Children During Times of Disruption
- The Power of Storytelling for Healing

Ideal For

- Schools and Youth Organizations
- Libraries and Cultural Centers
- Nonprofits and Community Agencies
- Workplace Wellness Programs
- City-Funded Programs

Please feel free to reach out for any questions.

Get in Touch!

✉ tamicka@tamickamonsoncounseling.com

🌐 www.tamickamonsoncounseling.com

☎ 913-346-6252